

It is our great pleasure to inform you that on 04th July 2010th at the Assembly meeting of STA is unanimously elected

Mr. Edmund Schramm becomes President of the Taekwondo Association of Serbia.

(From left: Zoran Cendic (General Secretary), Venko Lazarov (PR and Marketing Manager) Edmund Schramm (President), Predrag Kovacic (Vice President))

Mr. Edmund Schramm, a former Taekwondo fighter and now prominent businessman, wants to bring Serbian Taekwondo further to the top. Together with his TAS board, he is set to take various measures to reach his goals.

Mr. Schramm has been travelling to Serbia regularly for almost 8 years and loves the country and its people. Furthermore one of his businesses , KWON, has been the sponsor of the Serbian Taekwondo Federation since many years. Together with his exclusive Distribution Partner and experienced consultant, martial arts legend and owner of Judokan distribution company in Belgrade Mr. Venko Lazarov, they together have been actively supporting also other martial arts sports in Serbia in the past.

Mr. Schramm was honored and humbly accepted the position of first man and representative of the TAS and is poised to take the necessary steps to contribute substantially to the further development of Taekwondo in Serbia.